

I would very much like to keep my Airl station in my area. The station reaches people from all walks of life. Some people have even decided not to take their own life because of a message or song heard on Airl. I think that in itself is reason enough to keep the station as is. I enjoy having positive station for myself and my family to listen to, as it is becoming harder to find "clean" entertainment these days.